In the spotlight....Ben Perrigo

Q. What is your role at Method?

A. I am a CAD Technician within Method, I am involved in the process of producing drawings for an engineer to present to a client.

Q. What does a typical day look like for you?

A. It's always sunny at Method, A normal day to me is working through some markups from Engineers or the BIM team (on occasion). Talking and checking things with the engineer to be thorough and to eliminate any lingering issues.

Q. What is the favourite part about working for Method?

A. The working environment is friendly and not too corporate, it helps to significantly improve morale, reduce stress and improve communication between everyone including communication between managers and other employees.

Q. Three words to describe Method?

A. One Big Family

Q. What drew you to Method originally?

A. Method interested me originally because of the CAD position that was being offered. It was based around an industry which I had an interest but little experience in prior to applying for the role.

Q. Before working at Method, what was the most unusual or interesting job you've ever had?

A. Technically speaking I worked at a bar for about an hour. As it was at a bar and I knew very little about alcohol it was a difficult hour for me.

Q. What would you do (for a career) if you weren't doing this?

A. I would be seeking my initial career goal and looking to work in weapons design.

Q. What advice do you have for prospective Method candidates?

A. Communication and attention is key!

and the fun questions!

Q. Are you messy or organised?

A. Personally I believe there is method to my madness, organised chaos.

Q. Choose your Mr. Men/Little Miss, to describe your work personality? Your home life personality?

A. Mr Bump/Mr. Messy

Q. What kinds of hobbies and interests do you have outside of work?

A. Art and Martial Arts

Q. What do you always want to try and never did?

A. There was always that digger at Digger Land I never got to try…

Q. What is an ability you wish you had?

A. The ability to be able to restart a day over, from when I woke up the first time, whenever I wanted.
