A. Marketing and Business Development Co-ordinator however I also look after recruitment.

Q. What does a typical day look like for you?

A. Starts with a coffee, check and answer any emails but other than that I don't really have a typical day, that is what I like about my role, every day is different!

Q. What is your favourite part about working for Method?

A. The atmosphere, walking in and getting a hello or morning from everyone. Actually looking forward to your day at work.

Q. Three words to describe Method?

A. One big team.

Q. What drew you to Method originally?

A. The flexibility they offer.

Q. Before working at Method, what was the most unusual or interesting job you've ever had?

A. Years ago I used to work in the Henge shop in Avebury, they sold a lot of crystals (for their healing powers) as well as lots of new age hippy stuff. You had some really interesting (and strange) people pass through.

A. I have worked with engineers of some description for about 20 years so definitely an engineer!

Q. What would you do (for a career) if you weren't doing this?

A. I always wanted to be a vet but I did a weeks work experience at the vets which was a real eye opener! Other than that had we still had the family farm I would probably have gone to work for the family business.

A. Definitely organised.

A. Not really bothered with celebrities but I would like to see my Grandmother again.

Q. Motto or personal mantra?

A. In for a penny, in for a pound.

Q. What is the worst thing you did as a kid?

A. Hmm, definitely cutting my Sisters fringe off and making a picture with it, oh and burning her hair during a Christingle service (a slight theme going on here)
